

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

Alexandria Gazette.

MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 11, 1882.

A PEOPLE WHO REVERSE EVERYTHING. An observing European will find many curious customs in Japan, and none more so than the habit the people have of doing everything backward, or the reverse from the way we do it at home. For instance, their saws have the teeth turned toward the handle; consequently it is the upper cut that cuts. When they use a plane they pull it toward them, not push from them. They get on a horse from the right side. The buttons on their clothes are on the left side of the garments, while ours are invariably on the right. The last thing when they build a house is to dig the cellar (if they have one), and the first thing is to get the roof on. Their books begin where ours end, and the printing is perpendicular, while ours is horizontal. The first word on the page is in the right hand corner, while ours is in the left hand corner, and they number their pages at the foot instead of the top. But their clocks present the most curious feature. The hands stand still while the face moves. They say, for instance, it is 1 o'clock, meaning it is one hour before the next starting time; while, when we say 1 o'clock, we mean it is one hour after the starting time. Consequently in Japan 2 o'clock is earlier by an hour than 2 o'clock.

THE DIFFERENCE.—"When I was your age," remarked a Wall street father to his son, "I had to get along on five dollars a week, while you throw away fifty and demand still more; can it be that there is such a difference in the times?" "Don't think it, governor—don't think it," was the cool rejoinder, "I think the difference is in our personal style. I can't slump along the way you did—can't possibly do it and hold my head up in society, and you ought to see the difference between the girl you married and the one who is mashed on me. Come down governor—don't be mean with me!"
